DPAC Updates:

- Elections for new Executive for DPAC last week.
- Talked about new criminal record check details: Online and only need to do it once now for multiple schools.
- District budget updates.
- Strategic plan being finalized: Talk about new school plans in Chilliwack.
- Conversations about insurance coverage for PAC volunteers and students.
- Updated constitution and bylaws for DPAC.
- Conversations about more body science possibilities for learning.

Fundraising Updates:

- Freezie Sale: $217 made from last sale.
- Freezie Sale this Friday again. Maddie and Nathan to be there and running things, and Kate to help too.
- Talked about possibly doing another freezie sale on Friday June 13. We'll reassess after this Friday, June 6.
- Michelle has made a flyer for hot lunch (sports day lunch) and freezies. Due date for hot lunch is June 18.
- Extra popcorn and freezies to be sold at concession on Sports Day, June 24. Also, some cookies, chips and suckers.

-Playground: Donna is still waiting to hear back from the playground supplier. Our team talked about having a vision ready to share with our school and wider community for our September family bbq.

-Munchalunch: Michelle to add option to donate extra money through Munchalunch for PAC fundraising. Kate mentioned using Zeffy as an avenue to donate for bigger donations, as it has no fees. Donna will get information on this from Kate.

-Michelle: Made a motion to reapply for Munchalunch for next year. Seconded by Maddie, and passed by the group.

-Gaming Report Summary: Done by Michelle. In September, note to remember that the Gaming Grant Summary is due in December.

-Kate to apply for Gaming Grant: Will get that done soon, as it's due by the end of June.
